MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Installation Food Service Memorandum Policy No. 56 - Dress Code Requirements for Fort Gordon Installation Dining Facilities

1. References:

a. AR 670-1, 20 May 92, Wear and Appearance of Army Uniforms and Insignia.

b. AR 30-22, 10 May 05, The Army Food Program.

2. This memorandum applies to all individuals entering a Fort Gordon dining facility to consume a meal.

3. To provide an environment of comfort, while still maintaining reputable standards, the Fort Gordon Installation Food Service has established the following dress code:

a. Personnel entering or utilizing the dining facilities will be dressed in good taste and maintain a respectable standard of appearance.

b. Shoes and shirt will be worn at all times. Open toe sandals and thongs will be worn with socks or nylons. No shower shoes will be worn at any time.

c. Shirts intended to be worn as undergarments will not be worn as outer garments. Tank tops, blouses without bras, sleeveless shirts exposing the armpits, or see-through shirts will not be worn.

d. No bathing suits of any type will be worn at any time.

e. No clothing with iron-ons, slogans, or patches, which are sexually suggestive, contains profanity, or are in bad taste will be allowed.

f. The Army PT uniform may be worn in the dining facility after PT or details. The PT uniform will not be worn when it is extremely dirty or wet with perspiration.

g. No mixed uniforms or any part of a uniform will be worn with civilian attire, including motor pool "coveralls," PT uniforms, brown ACU tee-shirts, or plain white tee-shirts.

h. No denim jeans with holes, cut-off shorts that have strings hanging, or shorts that are too suggestive will be worn at any time.

i. No headgear, civilian or military, will be worn by any personnel, except authorized food service personnel, food inspectors, and military police under arms. No hair curlers, scarves, bandannas, or anything of this nature will be worn at any time.

4. Individuals who do not comply with these guidelines will make the appropriate correction or will be asked to leave the dining facility.

5. Officers and noncommissioned officers are requested to assist the enforcement of the dress code.

6. The purpose of these guidelines is to uphold the values of the United States Army and the good reputation of the installation.

7. The proponent for this Policy Letter is the Installation Food Program Manager, DOSS, 706-791-2636. .
