

Media Advisory

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

February 21, 2014 / 002

Fort Gordon Will Celebrate African American Black History Month with Ceremony

By Neil R. Guillebeau (neil.r.guillebeau.civ@mail.mil)
7th Signal Command (Theater), Public Affairs Officer

FORT GORDON, Ga. — Fort Gordon will celebrate African American Black History Month with a ceremony at Alexander Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 25 at 1:30 p.m.

This year's theme is "Civil Rights in America." Melissa Waddy-Thibodeaux, noted actor, storyteller and playwright, will serve as the guest speaker. Also, the Grovetown Elementary School fourth and fifth grade singers will perform during the program.

7th Signal Command (Theater) is the sponsor for this year's event, and it will be hosted by Brig. Gen. John B. Morrison, Jr., commanding general, 7th Signal Command (Theater).

Media are invited and encouraged to attend the ceremony. Media representatives should arrive at Alexander Hall in time to complete setup by 1 p.m.

To confirm your attendance or for additional information, please contact Neil Guillebeau at 912-674-7437 or neil.r.guillebeau.civ@mail.mil.