DAYS OF REMEMBRANCE/HOLOCAUST

FORT GORDON, GA – Days of Remembrance for Holocaust Victims will be observed at Fort Gordon’s Alexander Hall on Chamberlain Ave. Tuesday, April 29 at 1:30 p.m.

“Days of Remembrance” for Victims of the Holocaust is the week incorporating Yom Hashoah (Holocaust Remembrance Day).

Speaker for the Days of Remembrance program will be Andre Kessler (born Andre Grunfield) born in 1940, in Bucharest, Romania. In December 1942, Andre’s father, Ladislaw, was sent to a labor camp and his mother, Olga, went into hiding with Andre in the library of their home, assisted by the superintendent of their apartment building. Andre and his mother were liberated at the end of 1944.

In later years, Andre would learn that over 120 of his relatives had been murdered in the Holocaust.
