REGIMENTAL COMMAND SERGEANT MAJOR CEREMONY

FORT GORDON, GA – The United States Army Signal Center of Excellence and Fort Gordon will conduct the Relinquish of Responsibility and Retirement Ceremony for Regimental and Fort Gordon Command Sergeant Major Thomas J. Clark, Friday, March 11 at 3 p.m. on Barton Field.

CSM Clark has served in uniform for 31 years since he completed his Basic Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. He has served at all levels of leadership in the Non-Commissioned Officer's ranks in the Signal Corps, including two combat tours in Iraq. He is an active member of both the Sergeant Audie Murphy and Sergeant Morales Clubs.

On October 26, 2007, CSM Clark began his distinguished career as the 20th Signal Regimental and Fort Gordon Command Sergeant Major.
