

***MEDIA ADVISORY***MEDIA ADVISORY***MEDIA ADVISORY***

Release Number: 11-21
Date: April 20, 2011

Lt. Col. (Ret.) Ken Baldowski
Media Relations Officer
Georgia Department of Defense
(678) 569-6064
Ken.baldowski@ga.ngb.army.mil

Georgia's Agribusiness Development Team prepares to deploy

What: The Georgia Army National Guard's first Agribusiness Development Team (ADT) begin a year-long deployment to Afghanistan with the mission to assist Afghan farmers.

When: Monday, April 25, 2011 at 10:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

Where: Gymnasium #3 located on Brainard Avenue adjacent to Barton Field.

Who: Major General Maria Britt, Commanding General, Georgia Army National Guard
Col. Bill Williams, Commander, Agribusiness Development Team

Visuals: Family members and friends of the ADT will attend the departure ceremonies preceding unit's departure by convoy to Atlanta.

Background: Georgia's Agribusiness Development Team is a handpicked Army Guard unit that has trained over the past year in agriculture science and livestock care to assist Afghan farmers in enhancing centuries-old agricultural methods. This is Georgia's first ADT team to deploy.

Contact: Lt. Col. (Ret.) Ken Baldowski, Media Relations Officer, Georgia Department of Defense, (678) 569-6064, or (cell) 404-409-8104.

###

Get all the latest online at: www.GaDoD.net or

