

United States Army Signal Center of Excellence & Fort Gordon

Public Affairs Office, Nelson Hall, Building 29801, Room 209, Fort Gordon, GA 30905-5735

News Release

Release Number: 12-21

Date: May 14, 2012

Contact (706) 791-6001

mediarelations@gordon.army.mil

ARMED FORCES DAY CELEBRATION

FORT GORDON, GA - The Augusta Warrior Project and major sponsors across the CSRA, supported by Fort Gordon, will conduct an Armed Forces Day celebration called “Thunder Over Augusta” Saturday, May 19 at 3 p.m. at the Evans Towne Center Park. (Lady A. Amphitheatre)

“A Salute to Our Heroes,” opening ceremony will commence with a mass induction ceremony of new recruits into the U.S. Army and the reciting of the Soldier Creed by more than 300 soldiers.

Throughout the afternoon there will be military demonstrations, music, and displays from all branches of the military, including the Signal Corps Band, the Naval Information Operations Command Navy Choir, the Military Police working dogs, and Army combatives by the Fort Gordon NCO Academy students.

There will also be a motorcross stunt team, skydiving, a kids zone, vendors and food.

Beginning at 4:30 p.m., live musical groups will perform, followed by a fireworks display at approximately 9:15 p.m.

To view all news releases visit www.gordon.army.mil/pao/mediarelations.htm