ACCIDENTAL DEATH OF A FORT GORDON SOLDIER

FORT GORDON, GA – On Friday, June 22, it was reported that a Fort Gordon soldier had accidentally fallen off the 2nd floor balcony of his billets.

The soldier, Private First Class (PFC) Joseph N. Myers, 22, of the 297th Military Intelligence Battalion, sustained a major head injury and was transported to the Georgia Health Science University Hospital, where he was placed on life support.

At 1:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon, medical personnel pronounced PFC Myers deceased.

The accident is still under investigation by the Fort Gordon Criminal Investigation Division.
