SERGEANT MAJOR OF THE ARMY VISITS FORT GORDON

FORT GORDON, GA. – Sergeant Major of the Army Raymond F. Chandler III will visit Fort Gordon Monday and Tuesday, 20 and 21 August.

During his visit, Chandler will meet with Soldiers and Family members and observe training conducted at Fort Gordon.

Chandler is the senior enlisted Soldier in the U.S. Army. Throughout his 30-year career, Chandler has served in every enlisted leadership position from all tank crewman positions to his current position as the 14th Sergeant Major of the Army. As Sergeant Major of the Army, Chandler serves as the Army Chief of Staff's personal adviser on all enlisted-related matters, particularly in areas affecting Soldier training and quality of life.

On Tuesday, 21 August at 10:30 a.m., we invite the media to come and have an opportunity to cover SMA Chandler's visit to entry level Information Technology (IT) Soldiers with some hands-on training, followed by a brief question and answer session.
